Radio Transmission System Development Project; Initiation of

50X1

1. You will recall that on 8 August, representatives of OPC and Commo met with Gen. Saville of the USAF to consider various research and development projects which Air Force was willing to undertake for the ultimate benefit of CIA. At that meeting it was agreed that a system proposed by appeared highly desirable and that the necessary action should be taken to proceed with this project at the earliest possible date.

50X1

2. You are advised that technical considerations have now been agreed upon and negotiations leading to an early development contract have been initiated.

50X1

The estimated cost of

50X1

Completion is expected by July 1951.

50X1

3. The report of this first phase of the project, made by our Engineering Branch, is forwarded for your information. Subsequent reports will be made in the normal manner via
